Re: Hepburn, Shafer*August 9, 2023*Page 2

When confronted by the probation officer regarding his unauthorized travel, the offender adamantly denied such and was insistent that he was scheduled to work, but never traveled out of the district. He was given several opportunities to be truthful with the probation officer; however, he continued to deny that he left the Eastern District of Washington.

On August 7, 2023, this officer contacted the offender to advise the Court was going to be notified of his noncompliant behavior. At that time, he reluctantly admitted that he had in fact traveled to the Western District of Washington on July 30, 2023.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender was reprimanded for leaving the judicial district without this officer's permission, as well as his failure to be truthful with the undersigned. He apologized and agreed to be forthcoming with the probation officer in the future.

Mr. Hepburn currently resides with family members in Spokane Valley, Washington, and recently reported that he secured new employment.

At this time, the probation officer recommends that the Court take no action. If Your Honor requires a different course of action or a court appearance by the offender, please contact the undersigned.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
